INSTANT CONVERTIBLE. Al Lewis Jr., a driver education teacher at the Granite City High School, inspects the remains of his 1969 model Ford hardtop sedan which was reduced to a convertible type body when a large crane operating at the rear of the high school toppled over at 10 a.m. Friday. A load of old bricks, mortar and concrete carried in the bucket end of the boom crashed through the roof of Lewis' car. The falling crane extensively damaged four other cars and part of the school music room building.

Crane Falls, Hits 5 Cars

"Out of the corner of my eye I could see the crane tipping towards me and I didn't know just how far the boom would reach so I took off running," related Al Lewis Jr., a driver education instructor, whose 1969 auto was destroyed in a freak accident at Granite City High School at 10:15 a.m. Friday.

Lewis, 2557 Stratford Lane, was standing about 50 feet away from the huge 110-ton capacity crawler boom-crane overturned, damaging five automobiles and a corner section of the school's music room.

The 200-foot crane, owned by M. Wilson Construction Co., 1616 Cleveland Blvd., was dismantling the burned-out auditorium at the rear of the high school complex. Work resumed at the project site this morning.

Ground Gives Way

Al Prater, vice-president of S. M. Wilson Co., told police the ground beneath one of the crane's large tracks gave way, causing the equipment to turn completely on its side.

Pfister said today that an investigation into the incident is continuing, but nothing so far indicates any change in the initial report.

Needs Job to Be Able to Remain Yugoslavian Locates Relatives Here Following 30-Year Search

By GARY SCHNEIDER

A dream came true for Ivan Kerep, 46, of the village of Varazdin in Yugoslavia as he arrived in the United States last week to visit relatives in Granite City.

Kerep's uncle, Vuka Kerep, came to Granite City from Varazdin in 1912 and, from the time Kerep was a youth, he corresponded with his uncle.

Mrs. Stajduhar found his address in an old scrapbook. Not knowing who Kerep was, Mrs. Stajduhar enlisted the aid of a friend to translate her thoughts into a letter for Kerep in Yugoslavia.

Kerep, overjoyed to have located his relatives, promptly replied that he was Mrs. Stajduhar's cousin and would like to visit.

Arrangements for the trip finally were made and he arrived here last week. He was so impressed with life in America that he is attempting to find a job here so that he may stay and bring his wife and three children here.

With this in mind, he has been seeking a position in the Quad-Cities. In Yugoslavia, he worked as a wrought iron worker, a welder, a locksmith and an auto body repairman.

If he is unable to find a job here, he will be forced to return to Yugoslavia Aug. 23, when his visa expires.

Mrs. Stajduhar said anyone who can be of assistance is welcome to call her at 876-7490.

The body decomposed body was uncovered in weeds at the site. Venice Chief of Police Ralph D. Brawley said the body had been buried or just hidden in the weeds and dirt. Brawley estimated that the man had been dead more than one month.

The victim apparently had been strangled by a knotted cloth found around his neck, police said. The man's hands were tied with television antenna wire and his feet were bound with an electric cord.

Only distinguishable items on the body were red under shorts and blue and green striped knit-style pants.

Raymond Thomas, deputy coroner, pronounced the victim dead. The body is being held pending results of an investigation which is under way.

An East St. Louis woman, whose name is being withheld, contacted police after the body was found and said her missing son had owned a pair of pants similar to those on the victim.

She said he is under way viewed the body but were unable to make a positive identification.

Dental records of her son were to be requested from the military but Brawley indicated today that the victim's teeth also were badly damaged, making a dental match difficult.

The Illinois Bureau of Identification is assisting in attempts to determine the identity.

THEFT FROM HOME. A rotisserie, valued at $100, was stolen from the home of Stanley Walk, 4921 Mueller Ave., Mitchell, the owner reported at 4 p.m. Saturday.

2 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY

Pontoon Beach Man Dies In Crash, Children Hurt

John D. Everts, 40, of 4029 Gaslight Walk, Apt. 4, was injured fatally and two of his children were hurt seriously at 2 p.m. Friday when the Everts car crashed into a tree on Missouri Route T, 12 miles west of Perryville, Mo.

Mr. Everts died in Perry County Hospital at Perryville a short time after the accident.

Injured were Jennifer Everts, 9½, and John Everts, 4. Both suffered internal injuries and Jennifer sustained a severe leg laceration. They were transferred to St. Elizabeth Hospital here Saturday.

Mr. Everts, who had taken the two children to the family clubhouse near Perryville for the weekend, apparently was driving from the clubhouse to Perryville to get groceries and other supplies, when the accident occurred, according to members of his family.

Missouri State Troopers said the Everts car was eastbound on Route T when Mr. Everts apparently lost control and the car ran off the highway, crashing head-on into a tree. Mr. Everts and the two children left Granite City early Friday.

Following word of the accident here, Mrs. Beulah Everts, 2227 E. 23rd St., mother of Mr. Everts, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital suffering a nervous condition.

In addition to his widow, Mrs.

Christine Everts, his mother and the two injured children, Mr. Everts is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sue Sartio, two stepsons, Allen Ray Todd and Dennis Todd; two brothers, Robert and William Everts, his father Everett Everts and one grandchild, all of Granite City. Mr. Everts was employed in the cold strip mill at Granite City Steel Co.

Funeral services were to be held this afternoon. Details may be found in the obituary column.

House, Car Damaged By Storm

By WALTER STRANGE

"I was just beginning to cook breakfast for my husband Jim when I heard a loud noise that sounded like a roar and it kept getting louder and louder. I yelled for my husband just as we heard the crash next door," Mrs. Betty Patton, 5107 Rapp Road, related after high winds, possibly a tornado, swept through the area Saturday morning.

The wind uprooted two trees and damaged the home and auto of Frank Turner, 5109 Rapp Road, at 7:15 a.m. Saturday.

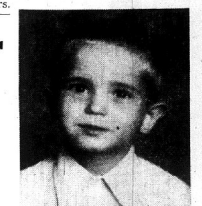

The Turners and their five children had returned home Thursday from vacationing in Texas where they encountered several tornado warnings.

"We were all asleep when everything happened," Turner explained. "The crash woke us all up."

A large cottonwood with a circumference of seven to eight feet was broken off by the wind about six feet above the ground. The tree fell into another tree and onto the Turners late model car, shattering the rear right window, and denting the roof, side and hood.

Some damage was done to the side and roof of the Turner home. Part of the tree landed across the street breaking out two front windows in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Awall, 5104 Rapp Road.

Another neighbor, Richard Bywater, and his 11-year-old son Biff were fishing on Long Lake nearby. According to young Bywater he saw "a whole bunch of dark dirt going round and round

CHRISTOPHER RULO Killed in Mishap

He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital here where he was pronounced dead on arrival. He was taken to a Madison funeral home. His mother is a former resident of this area.

An inquest is pending. The boy was born in St. Louis and lived in the Edwardsville area three years.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his stepfather, Leo Huddleston of Edwardsville; three brothers, Lenny, Michael and Gregory Rulo of Edwardsville; three sisters, Charlotte and Sheila Rulo and Louise Huddleston of Edwardsville; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Golden of Lynn, Mo., and Mrs. Violet Paris of Berne, Mo.

Democrat Pucinski Sees GOP Victory in Illinois

By KEN WATSON
Copy News Service

Springfield — Maybe only Howlett.

"I have a frequently-expressed view," reflected the pessimism among Stashouse Democrats last week as the bitter tiding flowed back from Miami Beach.

As far as Illinois Democrats were concerned, the worst was happening. The last tin, hopes of party unity for the fall campaign were shattered as Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, long-recognized as the titular head of the party in this state, was unceremoniously bounced out of the national convention.

Democratic Senatorial Candidate Roman C. Pucinski spoke for thousands of precinct workers back home when he bluntly told a perplexed television commentator that the ousting of Daley by the forces of U. S. Sen. George S. McGovern had cost Democrats the election in Illinois this fall.

Beneath the Statehouse Dome, there is a growing feeling that perhaps only popular Auditor Michael J. Howlett, the party's near-independent candidate for secretary of state, can survive a mounting GOP tide.

In scarcely a week, the entire outlook for the fall campaign in Illinois has changed. Such a stunning reversal is unprecedented.

The Democrats, who up to now have felt confident of winning the governorship and most other state offices, are now going into the showdown stage as discouraged underdogs.

A disappointing campaign by gubernatorial candidate Daniel Walker and mass defections from usually reliable labor organizations have now been capped by the Miami Beach humiliation of Mayor Daley, an event whose repercussions will long be felt in Illinois politics.

About the only consoling factor to Capitol Democrats about the Daley debacle was that it happened in the wee hours of the convention when few voters presumably were watching television.

The national television correspondents, generally recognized as pro-McGovern and anti-Daley, had a field day in the Daley defeat and seem to take glee rubbing verbal salt in the wounds of well-known regular Democrats from this state.

Democratic House Leader Clyde Chaste of Anna, popular Statehouse figure and holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor from World War II for bravery, turned up identified by print on television as "Clyde Shultz." Chaste was floor leader and spokesman for the Illinois delegation.

At the same time, the television people made a hero out of radical Chicago leader Jesse Jackson, a bitter Daley foe who has been under fire by some party leaders because he reportedly did not even vote in the March primary.

Daley at his weakest is credited with controlling about one million votes in Illinois. Jackson, who now hails himself as the new Democratic leader in Illinois, at best is worth less than half that by Statehouse standards.

Despair and division among Illinois Democrats may be at its lowest depth right now—and hopes will no doubt revive to a measurable extent.

But current despair among the party faithful is at a point unmatched since President Eisenhower announced he would run for a second term.

For increasingly hopeful Illinois Republicans, 1972 is beginning to more and more resemble that happy year of 1958 when the party's fortunes climbed steadily from earlier in-the-year problems to an election night sweep.

WEEKEND WIND DAMAGE. "Mother Nature" blew over a large cottonwood tree in Frank Turner's back yard, 5109 Rapp Road, at 7:15 a.m. Saturday. Damage, by the tree, was caused to the eaves of the Turner's house and their 1971 auto in addition to snapping power lines. They and their five children had returned Thursday from a vacation in Texas where they encountered several tornado warnings. No one was injured in Saturday's incident.

Variety of Musical Artists on River Festival Stage This Week

MIKE BREWER and TOM SHIPLEY

TUESDAY, JULY 18—BREWER AND SHIPLEY.

Two folksingers who write their own material are Mike Brewer and Tom Shipley. Brewer was born in Oklahoma City in 1944. By the time he finished high school, he knew he wanted to make music his career. He bumped around the country for five years, working the old coffeehouse circuit, running into Tim Shipley in Cleveland.

They met each other in various towns but did not form a partnership until later. In the meantime, Mike joined a group in California, which soon dissolved except for Tom Mastin, with whom Brewer worked as a duo.

Mastin was replaced by Mike's brother for a short while and then Brewer settled down as a contract writer for an affiliate of A & M Records.

Shipley was born in Mineral Ridge, O., in 1942. He attended Baldwin Wallace College in Berea, O., studying ecology, but learning also the guitar and singing for fun.

After graduation, he became the house musician at a club playing nightly and working on his songs. In 1968, he joined Brewer in California and they formed a duo to perform their own material.

They left California and have settled with their families on a small farm in Missouri.

Top album: "Tarkio." Top ten single: "One Toke Over the Line."

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19—RARE EARTH.

Each of Rare Earth's six musicians contributes to the unique sound of the group, which blends hard rock, blue, jazz and soul that's far out.

"The audience response is all-important to us," says the Detroit-originated Rare Earth. "If we can form one mind between ourselves and the audience, then we really get moving."

Their first three albums are multi-million sellers. Following "Ecology," "Get Ready" and "One World" with another blockbuster wasn't easy, but their fourth LP, a double-record live set, is the best yet.

Their four gold singles include "Get Ready," "I Know I'm Losing You," "Born to Wander" and "I Just Want to Celebrate."

FRIDAY, JULY 21—BUDDY DEFRANCO and the GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA.

For more than a decade, DeFranco has been considered number one man on the clarinet.

He has played with many of the big bands—Gene Krupa, Charlie Barnett, Tommy Dorsey and others.

He studied clarinet as a child in Philadelphia, to which city his family had moved from Camden, N. J. When he was 14, he won a national awing contest sponsored by Tommy Dorsey.

Like Miller, DeFranco has always evidenced a keen interest in new and different sounds.

He believes three basic elements play an important role in the music of big bands—good tone production, facility or technique, and expression of feeling. Also like Miller, he emphasizes that "section players must work as a team and feel music together."

The Glenn Miller Orchestra is the biggest record selling popular orchestra in the U. S. It appears at major hotels throughout the country, as well as touring Europe and the Far East.

SATURDAY, JULY 22—TEIKO MAEHASHI.

This petite, lovely violinist was born in Tokyo and started her violin studies at the age of five.

By the time she was 13, she had already won first prize in Japan's most prestigious music competition—the Mainichi NHK Concours, and made her recital debut in Tokyo.

She studied at the Toho School, frequently appearing with orchestras. While still in her teens, she was invited by the Russian government to continue her violin studies at the Leningrad Conservatory. There she studies with Michael Weisman.

She had the opportunity to tour throughout Russia, both as a recitalist and as a soloist with orchestras.

Returning to Tokyo in 1964, Miss Maehashi began appearing regularly with orchestras and in recital. In 1967 she came to the Juilliard School of Music as a scholarship student and concentrated on modern and contemporary works.

In the past few years, she has performed in Japan, Russia and European countries as well as the U. S.

SUNDAY, JULY 23—VICTOR BORGE.

Borge was introduced to the piano at the age of three by his mother.

His father, first violinist with the Royal Danish Symphony, wanted him to study the violin, but Borge was determined to stick to the keyboard.

By the time he reached his eighth birthday, he was ready to make his concert debut in Copenhagen. He was hailed as a prodigy and won a scholarship to the music conservatories in Copenhagen, Berlin and Vienna.

He began integrating humor into his concerts, at the same time writing music for and accompanying local musical revues in Copenhagen.

When the star comedian of one of these shows fell ill, Borge replaced him and another chapter in his career was written.

Borge left at the time of the fall of Denmark, when he was one of the chief targets of the Nazis. He arrived in America in 1941, unable to speak English and almost penniless.

He attended movies almost daily to listen and learn English. Eventually, he was hired to do the audience warm-up for Bing Crosby's radio show. His own shows soon followed, and he toured the U. S. and Canada, becoming a star in the leading hotels.

Borge's one-man show on Broadway became the longest solo run (849 performances) in the history of the theatre. Now, 31 years later, he is a much sought-after conductor in this country.

'Sneaky Fitch' Staged At Illinois State U.

"The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch," an Illinois State University summer theatre production, opened Thursday night for a seven-performance run in Westhoff Theatre. Dale Thomson of Granite City is in the cast.

This comic treatment of the myth of the "Old West" will be presented July 13-16 and 20-22. Curtain time for all performances is 8 p.m.

Although playwright James L. Rosenberg calls "Sneaky Fitch" a farcical tragedy, the director, Calvin Prinner, comments that the term "tragedy" is used loosely. It is appropriate because of the death of its unusual anti-hero, Sneaky Fitch.

The play's problem is that the mythical town of Gopher Gulch is plagued by the presence of Sneaky Fitch, the town bum. In this mythical Western town where every man is brave and willing to die for the "code of the West," Sneaky Fitch is a coward. He insults those who believe in it. The townspeople's disgust turns to fear after a miraculous event returns Sneaky from the dead as "the man who can't be killed."

THREE LEADING CHARACTERS in Illinois State University's production of "The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch" are: on the left, Fitch (Richard Snyder of Bensenville who shows his cowardice when faced by hard-nosed gun-fighter Rackham, played by Ricardo Gutierrez of Joliet. The anxious witness is Dale Thomson of Granite City in the role of Doc Burch. The play will be performed in Westhoff Theatre on the ISU campus at 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday. "Sneaky Fitch," a presentation by ISU's Summer Theatre Company, is billed as "Western comedy for the whole family."

County to Observe Farm Safety Week

Farm Safety Week July 25-31 will emphasize personal protective equipment—special equipment designed to protect the farmer during his busy and often hazardous work day, according to Mrs. Waldo Keilbach, Madison County Farm Bureau Women's Committee chairman.

Surprisingly enough, the farm worker may have need for more types of protective equipment than the average construction worker, Mrs. Keilbach said.

Farming involves a number of diversified jobs, ranging from construction to machinery repair, and the types of protective equipment a farm worker might need range from such commonly used items as work gloves to considerably more complex things like respiratory equipment.

Some of the kinds of personal protective equipment useful on the farm include safety glasses or goggles, hump caps, ear muffs and plugs for lengthy exposure to excessive noise, filter and cartridge respirators for work in heavy dust and chemicals, protective clothing and safety shoes with metal toe caps and puncture resistant soles.

Farm family safety is by no means limited to farm activities. Farm family members are subjected to all of the safety hazards that threaten the general population. Family safety covers a whole host of areas—such as observing the water safety rules and using life jackets when involved in water recreation; fastening seat belts when riding in or driving the family automobile; and generally observing defensive driving procedures, when on the highway, the committee chairman noted.

Mercer and St. Mary's Nines Lose, Remain Tied for 2nd

By WALTER F. STRANGE

Press-Record Staff Writer

St. Mary's Boosters lost to Van's of East Alton 12-5 on the Third Street diamond in Madison Saturday, while yesterday Mercer bowed 9-1 in a road game with the Inter-City Baseball League leader, Troy.

Mercer also lost to the Menard Prison Cubs baseball team 7-6 Saturday in a seven-inning game played—where else?—behind the walls. The contest was shortened by rain.

"Our defense fell apart about the middle of the game and we just could not seem to tighten up," Jim Greer, the Madison manager, lamented about the St. Mary's game.

"East Alton's pitcher, Bill Blackledge, is an eight-year veteran of Inter-City baseball and is the type who can keep control of the situation."

"He only gave up six hits, walked one, and got three for five as a batter."

John Paskus belted a solo four-hitter in the eighth for St. Mary's.

The Boosters are now 4-7 (won-lost) and remain tied with Mercer's for second place in the Blue Division. Glen Carbon with an 8-4 record is the division leader.

St. Mary's plays the division leader next Sunday at 2 p.m. in Glen Carbon.

Mercer traveled to Troy Sunday and out-hit the opposition 8-7 but lost decisively. Each team made two errors.

The only Mercer run came in the eighth when Don Harris connected for a double, went to third on a ground ball and scored as Bob Scott hit a sacifice fly.

Bob Finkle, the losing pitcher, was relieved in the second after Troy garnered three runs. Pat Harris in turn was relieved by Jim Muehlhauser.

Mercer will play Highland Pierron Sunday at 2 p.m. on the Pierron diamond.

Karen Reisinger, 15, Makes Olympic Trials

Karen Reisinger of Granite City, one of the Midwest's top girl swimmers, has qualified for the Olympic trials Aug. 1-6 at Portage Park pool in Chicago.

The 15-year-old champion met qualifying times for the pre-Olympic trials during the weekend at the Missouri Valley District Championship at Kansas City, Mo.

She qualified with winning times in the 200-yard butterfly and 800-yard freestyle events. The latter race is the only distance swimming event authorized in the 1972 Olympics at Munich, Germany in August.

This weekend, Karen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reisinger, 2242 State St., will compete at a championship AAU meet in Cincinnati, where she will attempt to qualify for the individual medley and 400-yard freestyle events. A swimmer is allowed to participate in only four events at the Olympic trials.

Reisinger said today that Karen's expenses at Chicago and in Cincinnati will be paid by Tri-City American Legion Post 113. It is the first time a local group has underwritten the champion's expenses.

The Prather Junior High School student is spending this summer at the Overland Park home of Kent Porter, coach of the Kansas City Jets, one of the country's top swim squads.

Guelker Named Acting Director

Bob Guelker, varsity soccer coach, has been named interim acting athletic director at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Guelker will fill the non-salaried position, vacated with the resignation of Harry Gallatin, who asked to be relieved of his duties and reassigned to full-time teaching.

W. Deane Wiley, chairman of the Intercollegiate Athletic Committee, appeared at a meeting of the Student Affairs Council to announce his choice of Guelker as acting athletic director.

Said Wiley: "Because of the urgency of the situation, the need for important decisions to be made, I decided to take this course."

Members of the Student Affairs Council, through its chairman, Dan Wille, requested they be given an opportunity to question Guelker and any other applicant for the position.

Spalding Earns 4th Straight Dual Victory at Auto Races

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer

Even persistent and sustained efforts by Bobby Jones of Danville were unable to stop Wil Spalding of Pontoon Beach in gaining his fourth consecutive dual sweep at the Tri-City Speedway Friday night.

Spalding again won both the super-sprint and late model stock car feature events Friday, bringing his record for dual wins to four. The late model victory also was Spalding's eighth of 11 races this season. Jones, who holds several track records returned to the speedway Friday with special permission of the United States Auto Club (USAC), for which he has been driving since early this season.

Bids for Lead

In the super-sprint, Spalding had his hands full the entire 20 laps, keeping Jones from passing.

On the last lap, Jones passed on the inside of the second turn but Spalding, utilizing loose dirt high in the turn for better traction, pulled in front again with a burst of speed. At the finish line, Spalding was less than one car length in front of Jones.

The event had to be restarted once as Cliff Powell's car spun in the second turn on the first lap. Spalding, who had jumped into the lead, started again on the outside of the front row beside Jones. Again, the Pontoon Beach driver jumped in front as the green flag fell.

Dean Shirley of Lincoln edged his way between Spalding and Jones for several laps, but Jones finally went by to get a clear shot at Spalding. Shirley finished third, followed by Tom Corbin of Carrollton, Mo., and Jim Moughon of Springfield, Ill.

Easy Victory

In the late model stock car feature, Spalding's only close opponent, Bill Myers of Rosewood Heights, was forced to pull out with engine failure one and one-half laps from the finish line.

Bobby Stanton of East Alton led the first six laps of the event but yielded the lead to Spalding on the seventh lap. Myers then moved into second and Ken Lowe of Florissant, Mo., took the third spot. At the checkered flag, Spalding was trailing by Lowe. Lowe Janssen of Bethalto and Bill Lamb of Wood River.

Jones was the fastest sprint qualifier with a half-lap in 24.59 seconds. Spalding was second with 24.77 seconds and Gary Scott of Holt Summit, Mo., and Shirley finished third and fourth.

Myers had the fastest stock car lap with 27.69 seconds with Lowe second, Stanton third and Spalding fourth.

Jones won the sprint trophy dash, trailed by Shirley, Scott and Spalding. Sprint heat winners were Moughon, Ron Melton of Jacksonville and Spalding. The second heat was halted by a crash on the first lap, for which he has been driving since early this season.

The local team is now 9-6 and tied for fourth place with Highland.

Granite City plays its third final games this week, beginning at 8 p.m. today in Edwardsville. Tuesday at 8 p.m. on Fletcher Field against Collinsville; and Wednesday at 6 p.m. in Thursday's game, Granite City scored its only two runs in the first inning as Jack Scarborough and d Mike Stanton crossed the plate.

John Stanton was the losing pitcher. The local team committed six errors.

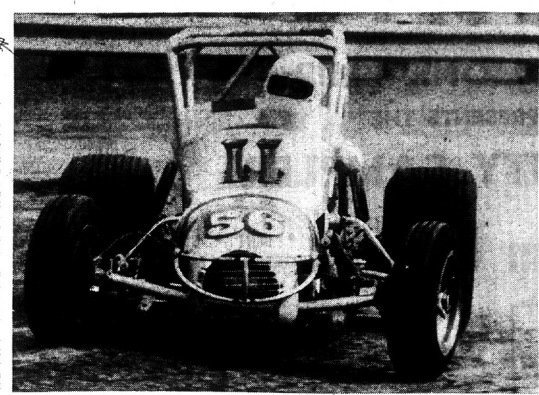

Youth Groups Invited To Aid Benefit Social

Local youth groups are being asked to help co-sponsor an "Ice Cream Social" for the benefit of John Allen Young, 9-year-old son of Granite City Patrolman and Mrs. Albert Young, who is suffering from an eye disease for which no cure is known and always results in blindness.

An organizational meeting is set for 7:30 tonight at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Amos and Franklin avenues.

Spearheading the event are members of the ROCA Young Men's Club. The public social is set for Sunday July 30, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Nameoki Park District Center.

Leaders of church, YMCA and other youth organizations interested in assisting with the project are invited to attend tonight's meeting, or call Paul Seebig Jr. at 831-497, for additional information.

SLIDING THROUGH A TURN during super-sprint car time-trials Friday night at the Tri-City Speedway, Wil Spalding of Pontoon Beach showed the driving skill which earned him four consecutive dual feature victories. Determined efforts by top sprint and late model stock car drivers have been unable to halt Spalding's winning streak in both divisions.

Grant to SIU-SW for Justice Data Study

The Illinois Law Enforcement Commission has awarded a grant of $30,000 to Southern Illinois University-Southwestern in support of a project entitled the "Illinois Juvenile Justice System Data Project." The program is directed by Carl Lossau, a specialist in planning in the earth sciences department.

The grant provides for the accumulation of data on the workings of the system throughout the coming fiscal year, ending in June, 1973.

Lossau said that such information as the number of juveniles involved in the courts, detention facilities, and other elements of the system throughout the state, is unknown at the present time. He said his researchers and consultants would identify the number of juveniles involved, and isolate where "the bulges occur" where the system bottlenecks.

Lossau said the data will be used by the commission in "formulating plans for the expenditures of money in the juvenile system," to improve its efficiency.

HEALTH AND SAFETY EVENT to be held Sept. 23 at Wilson Park is discussed in planning session last week at St. Elizabeth Hospital. All Uniwah District Boy Scouts will be involved in the project, which will be sponsored by Health Explorers Post 123 of St. Elizabeth Hospital. Left to right, Deanna Whitsell, president of the hospital Explorer Post; Elaine Noeth, chairman of general instructions for the project, and Cliff Blankenship, general chairman.

Truck Plate Deadline Extended to July 31

The deadline for display of 1972-73 truck plates and other second division vehicles licensed on a fiscal year basis has been extended to midnight, Monday, July 31 by Secretary of State John W. Lewis.

In making the extension, Secretary Lewis said "a late crush of applications and an increase in the number of registrations over last year prompted the moving of the deadline from July 15 to July 31."

Even though the deadline has been extended, the three Motor Vehicle Facilities in Chicago and the two locations in Springfield that sell license plates will be open Saturday, as previously announced, the secretary said.

Hospital Explorers to Stage First Aid Tests

Health Explorers Post 123, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Hospital, is planning and coordinating a "Health and Safety Event" to be held Sept. 23 at Wilson Park in Granite City.

General chairman of this summer project is Cliff Blankenship, who is working in cooperation with Ted Scrum, Uniwah District Boy Scout Commissioner and Leo Konzen, Uniwah District chairman. The project is sponsored by Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

The Granite City Boy Scout office is cooperating with the special "Health and Safety Event."

All Boy Scouts of the Uniwah District, Boy Scouts of America, will be involved. These include approximately 450 boys whose ages range from 11 to 14. Five "staged" accident problems will be viewed, diagnosed and first-aid treatment administered by each Scout unit.

Judging of their first-aid abilities will be on the basis of analysis of problem, cooperation of the unit and handling of the "victim."

Presentation of awards and certificates will be held on the Granite City High School football field.

Members of Post 123, chairing committees for this event are Ken Jackson, coordinator of the program, who is in charge of staffing, including nurses, timekeepers and judges. Deanna Whitsell, president of Post 123, is chairing the project committee, and Joyce Kopsic is in charge of coordinating the "mock" accidents. Elaine Noeth is chairman of general instructions.

A display of rescue equipment will be another added attraction of the day's activities. The general public is invited to attend.

BURGULARS VANDALIZE

Burglars ransacked and vandalized the home of Rose Earmhardt, 2512 Hodges Ave., during the night. It was reported Thursday. They scribbled on the wall: "With booze you lose, with dope there's hope." The intruders were suspected of drinking whiskey, according to the police report. Entry was gained by breaking the rear door glass with a meat cleaver.

She was fined Friday morning on $50 cash bail and her driver's license is

CADET DENNIS NAGY Leadership Training

Cadet Dennis N. Nagy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis C. Nagy Jr., 3220 Wabash Ave., is receiving practical work in military leadership at the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps advanced summer camp at Fort Riley, Kan., from June 10 to July 21.

Cadet Nagy, who is scheduled to receive a B.A. degree in 1973 from Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., is one of more than 10,000 students attending Army ROTC training at six installations in the U.S.

The six-week ROTC advanced camp provides an opportunity for cadets to develop and demonstrate leadership capabilities in a field training environment. The instruction supplements the theories and concepts which cadets learned in the classroom on campus.

Cadets normally attend the training between their junior and senior years. This enables them to better comprehend their final year of classroom work and to function as cadet leaders on campus.

The 20-year-old cadet is a 1969 graduate of Granite City High School.

Bear Begins Duties in SIU-SW Ed Department

David Bear assumed his duties this month as chairman of the elementary education department at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Bear said members of the elementary education faculty will become involved with education in Metro-East "in areas where the need is greatest."

"We're entering a period in which we have a surplus of teachers," Bear said. "This surplus will mean reduced enrollments, enabling the faculty to become involved more with the community in such ways as inservice training for school teachers, non-credit programs for parents of schoolchildren and reading instruction."

Bear was an elementary school principal in Alton before joining the SIU-SW faculty in 1957. He recently retired from the Alton Community Unit District 11 Board of Education after 12 years as an elected member.

The petitions are being circulated in Chouteau township which is served by the utility.

Attendance Lower This Year at Some State Parks

Copley News Service

Springfield — Overall attendance at Illinois State Parks is up slightly through the end of May, compared to the same period last year, but attendance at the larger parks individually shows widespread declines.

Ronald Johnson, director of parks and memorials in the State Department of Conservation, said the decline primarily is a result of different weather conditions in the last two spring seasons.

In 1971, Johnson said, there was an unusually early, pleasant spring which brought out swarms of visitors much earlier than normal. By contrast, he said, the spring this year was unusually late.

Individual parks reflected individual problems. In May, Fort Defiance state park was closed for a time, due to flooding.

There were some variations from the overall pattern as well, for which reasons didn't seem immediately available. At Sangchris state park, for instance, attendance through May, 1971 was 152,433, while through May of this year it is already 254,414.

At Starved Rock state park in LaSalle county, attendance through May this year was 224,638, compared to only 198,706 last year. Red Hills state park in Lawrence county tallied 128,833 visitors through May this year, with only 115,612 during the same period last year.

Rock Cut state park in Winnebago county has registered 33,922 visitors through May this year, compared to 263,003 last year. In that case, Johnson said, the low total in 1971 resulted from an accidental fish kill. A partial kill of blue gills was planned, because the blue gills were eating the bass fry. However, a faulty valve on the dam at the man-made lake permitted the lake to drain, ending all fishing there for the season.

Typical of a somewhat confusing attendance pattern were the Lincoln shrines in and around Springfield. Lincoln's Home showed 202,873 visitors through May this year, compared to 211,921 a year ago. At nearby New Salem state park, there were 30,197 through May last year, and only 273,786 through May this year.

But at Lincoln's Tomb in Springfield, there were 230,190 visitors through May this year, compared to 229,620 for the same period last year.

Overall totals for the first months this year show 7,949,426 visitors for this year, and 7,830,469 last year.

Price Sponsors Bill to Tell Citizens of Records

(Editor's note: Cong. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) delivered the following remarks before the House Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information which was holding hearings on bills requiring government agencies to apprise citizens if a record is being kept on such citizens. Cong. Price is a sponsor of such a bill.)

Mr. Chairman, I have become increasingly concerned over the government's invasion of the rights and privacy of our citizens. The Senate Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights held hearings on Federal Data Banks, Computers, and the Bill of Rights in February and March of last year.

Those hearings investigated the programs of the Department of the Army and Defense which put under surveillance Americans who might attempt to exercise their first amendment rights of speech, assembly, association, or to petition their government for redress of grievances.

Two assistant Attorneys General and various other Justice Department officials testified that they believed it to be within the power of the executive branch to investigate individuals and put them under surveillance.

Mr. Chairman, I can feel a sense of deep patriotic concern by these individuals, but neither they nor any others shall have the right to invade upon the privacy of our citizens without adequate safeguards. I think the Senate hearing record shows that remedial federal legislation is needed to correct abuses of governmental data collection.

In the First Session of the 92nd Congress, I introduced H.R. 7036, amending Title 5 of the United States Code, providing that individuals be appraised of records concerning them which are maintained by government agencies.

This bill provides five basic safeguards: an agency shall (1) notify an individual by mail at his last address that the agency maintains or is about to maintain a record concerning said individual, (2) refrain from disclosing the record or any information contained therein to any other agency or to any person not employed by the agency maintaining such records, except with permission of the individual concerned, his family, or guardian.

(3) Maintain an accurate record of the names and positions of all persons inspecting such records and the purpose for which such inspections were made, (4) permit any individual to inspect his own record and have copies thereof made at his own expense, and (5) permit any individual to supplement the information contained in his record by the addition of any document or writing containing information such individual deems pertinent to his record.

Mr. Chairman, this legislation will not open the door to subversion. It is designed to protect our citizens from capricious action. After all, this is supposed to be a government of and by the people, and this legislation will help strengthen this cherished democratic principle.

MRS. GERALD L. KENNER, the former Miss Sharon L. Banaszak, a daughter of Mrs. Elsie Banaszak, 1012 Alton Ave., Madison, who was married Saturday afternoon at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Madison.

Couple Exchanges Vows At St. Mary's Church

Air bouquets of white carnations and gladioli mixed with lavender pom poms provided the setting Saturday afternoon at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Madison for the wedding of Miss Sharon L. Banaszak and Gerald L. Kenner.

Their parents are Mrs. Elsie Banaszak, 1012 Alton Ave., Madison and the late Stanley F. Banaszak, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Kenner, who reside at 3700 Olds Road, Oxnard, Calif. The groom is stationed at Kirtland Air Force Base, N. M.

The Rev. Sylvester Micek, O.F.M., officiated at the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Eleanor Tutka, soloist, sang the "Love Theme" from Romeo and Juliet, "God of Love," "The Wedding Prayer," "Ave Maria" and "We've Only Just Begun." She was accompanied by Mrs. Helen McGarran at the organ.

The bride was presented in marriage by her brother, Stanley F. Banaszak Jr. She wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta. Floral Venice lace appliqued the front of the Empire bodice, edged the high stand up collar and encircled the cuffs of the sheer full sleeves. More lace trimmed the front of the slightly gathered skirt and detailed the detachable chapel train.

A camelot hat, traced with Venice lace, secured a three tiered bouffant veil of imported illusion and she carried a cascade of white carnations intermingled with camellia foliage.

Mrs. Cynthia R. O'Neill was matron of honor, serving with Mrs. Connie Bosworth and Mrs. Janet Branch, bridesmaids.

The attendants were dressed identically in white polyester organza gowns. Venice lace threaded with orchid satin ribbon accented the Empire bodices, fitted with long, sheer puff sleeves.

Cotton voile in a green plaid pattern, appliqued with violet colored flowers, was featured in the inset cummerbunds, ending in large bows at the front waistline, and on the softly draped skirts.

Brimmed picture hats, in orchid, prettily adorned with orchid satin ribbons and bows, complemented their ensembles. Each attendant carried a fire-side basket filled with lavender carnations, baby breath and leather leaf.

Attending the groom was his brother-in-law, Thomas J. Kelley, with Mark Beitz and Art Branch serving as groomsmen. Mrs. Banaszak, a mother of the bride, selected a street length frock of pink polyester made in A-line style. The sleeves were short, and the round neckline and hem were detailed with brocade lace.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Kenner, was attired in a sleeveless A-line dress with a matching jacket. Both mothers wore cymbidium orchid corsages. Miss Donna Mooshegan presided at the guest book. A reception was held at the Polish Hall in Madison after the ceremony.

The newlyweds presently are on a honeymoon trip to the Ozark region of Missouri. The former Miss Banaszak is a graduate of Madison High School. She is employed as a secretary in the general engineering department at Mallinckrodt Chemical Works.

Her husband, a 1968 graduate of the Channel Islands High School in Oxnard, Calif., holds the rank of sergeant in the U. S. Air Force.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN

Well, the Democratic Convention is over and now we won't all be coming to work bug-eyed from staying up till the wee hours. We'll find out in November whether or not the "show" got "good" ratings.

Did you know that the world is just filled with honest people. Our newspapers, radio, and TV only tell us about the dishonest ones, but it's a fact. Friday morning a lady called our office and inquired, "Did your snack bar register check out short this morning?" June Wedler, our office manager replied, "Yes it did." The lady then asked, how much short was it. June told her. She then related that Thursday evening she had made a purchase and was given $5.00 too much change. June thanked her for calling and we do too.

Next week's vacation list includes Rose Yates, Frank Hollenbeck, Rick North (on reserve duty during the day) and John Meinkoth (second big week). We got a real buy on Turkey Tails last week. If you haven't cooked any of these you are missing the boat. They are excellent just boiled with noodles, beans, etc. These are boneless tails from turkeys that are being cut up for roasts and parts. We buy them frozen in 50-lb. boxes when we can get them at the right price and last week the price was right. 4 lbs. for $1.00. The tail consists of a little skin, a nice hunk of meat and just enough fat to really flavor the noodles, beans or whatever you are cooking. We guarantee you that if you have a big family, one dollar worth of Turkey Tails will feed everyone and then some. Try it, we're sure you'll like it.

MRS. DANIEL H. ZIATZ, who was married at the Northgate Baptist Church in Kansas City, Mo. She is the former Ruth Aline Stanfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. Stanfield of Kansas City. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ziatz, 2656 Benton St.

Ziatz-Stanfield Wedding At Kansas City Church

The marriage of Miss Ruth Aline Stanfield, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. Stanfield of Kansas City, Mo., and Daniel Henry Ziatz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ziatz, 2656 Benton St., was solemnized June 17 at the Northgate Baptist Church in Kansas City.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the late afternoon by the Rev. John Penick.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a satin organza gown accented with satin, pure lace and Venice lace appliques and taiting.

The gown was designed with a high neckline and long full sleeves, gathered to deep cuffs over the wrists. A garland of lace appliques, extending from the shoulder, created a yoke effect on the fitted bodice and the motifs were repeated on the cuffs.

Her bouffant veil of tiered illusion was secured to a headpiece adorned with matching lace and taiting and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, miniature carnations, orchids and gypsophila.

Mrs. David Cooper Meers of Little Rock, Ark., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Another sister, Mrs. Jerry Day Chestnut of Fort Worth, Tex., and Mrs. Walter Miller of LaPorte, Ind., and Miss Janet Moore of Little Rock were the bridesmaids.

The junior maid was Lisa Chestnut, a niece of the bride, and Maria Meers, another niece, was the flower girl.

John Papa Jr. of Madison, a cousin of the groom served as best man. Groomsmen were David Cooper Meers, Jerry Day Chestnut and Walter Miller.

The attendants were dressed identically in aqua blue satin gowns, floor length, fashioned with matching bolero jackets. The flower girl wore a full length frock of oyster-white organza trimmed in aqua and accented with an aqua satin sash at the waist.

The former Miss Stanfield is an airline hostess with United Airlines. She is a graduate of the University of Arkansas and has completed post-graduate work at the University of Hawaii.

Mr. Ziatz was graduated from Granite City High School and William Jewell College. He earned a master's degree at Western Illinois University and is studying towards his doctorate at the University of Utah.

Regional Report -- Construction Level Showing Substantial Rise

(Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation)

The economy was given a big boost with the announcement that Amax Lead and Zinc, Inc., will re-open the former American Zinc Co. plant in Saugeat. The plant has been closed since June of last year.

Ammax, a subsidiary of American Metal Climax, purchased the facility for $5 million and plans to invest $16.4 million in improvements to modernize the operation. Current plans call for start-up and initial metal shipments early next year.

An annual payroll of $4 million is projected, involving 350 hourly workers.

When operating at full capacity, the plant is expected to produce 84,000 tons of special high grade zinc, 135 million pounds of cadmium and 150,000 tons of sulphuric acid each year.

In Aston, Cope Plastics, Inc., announced the proposed construction of a 36,000-square-foot industrial facility on a five-acre tract in the Northport Industrial Park.

The company, founded in St. Louis in 1945, is in the business of machining and fabricating plastics for machine parts and other uses. The new plant in Northport will replace an existing plant located in Godfrey.

Col. R. E. Smyser Jr. announced his retirement as executive director of the Bi-State Development Agency, effective the end of July. Smyser held the post for 12 years after a long career with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The agency operates Bi-State Parks Airport in Cahokia, transportation facilities at the Gateway Arch, a two-state bus system and the Granite City harbor. A hike in water rates was approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission. East St. Louis & Interurban Water Company was granted an increase approximating 14% as of June 30.

Increased revenues will be used to help meet rising costs of labor, materials, services, taxes and interest charges.

The East St. Louis Board of Education is expected to announce that the city's two high schools will be consolidated by the 1974-75 school year. A special advisory committee recommended the action.

Lincoln High School will be phased out because of declining enrollment as well as a measure of economy. The consolidation is expected to begin this fall.

The pros and cons of consolidation will be reviewed by three school districts in East Alton and Wood River. A feasibility study made by three Eastern Illinois University professors concludes that a combination of the three districts could reduce the overall tax rates applicable in the affected areas.

The survey also notes that a new unit district could receive more in state funds than the three districts are receiving now. One is a high school district and the other two are elementary districts.

Site preparation has begun for construction of three new Illinois Department of Transportation buildings in Fairview Heights. The buildings will be located on a five-acre tract along U. S. 50 and will be used to supplement the department's French Village quarters.

Cost of the new facilities has been estimated at $2 million. Construction is proposed to begin next year.

Scott Air Force Base has awarded nearly $700,000 in contracts to 15 firms. The largest is a $308,400 contract for construction of a recreation workshop at the base.

Other major contracts awarded provide for installation of computer support services and for alterations and additions to golf clubhouse facilities.

The rebuilding of the Granite City High School auditorium moved a step closer with the opening of bids for reconstruction. The low bid of nearly $700,000 will provide a new auditorium to replace the one which was destroyed by fire in November 1970.

Campus Nursing School Receives $15,915 Grant

The Nursing Division at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern has been awarded $15,915 for the continued support of its professional nurse traineeship program. The grant is under the direction of Doris Edwards, associate professor of nursing, and terminates Aug. 31, 1973.

50,000 Drivers Fail

Last year alone, over 50,000 Illinois licensed drivers failed the state written examination. This year the number of drivers that will fail could jump to a hundred thousand or more. Experts say "One reason is, that rules and regulations change, and even some good state drivers just don't keep up with the new order only if your license expires this year, you may be among the hundreds of thousands that will be re-examined in 1972. So if you're nervous about taking the state written exam, here's good news. You can now purchase your own "self-scoring" test papers, complete with questions, answers and a-o signs you should know for that important examination day. The papers are sold for $1.50 and pass the state exam. Introductory price just $6 plus 75 cents handling. (Check or money order only.) Mail to: AA-AA School of Safe Driving, 6304 N. Survey Goal Is Replacement for Personal Taxes

Thousands of Illinois businessmen last week received questionnaires regarding the tax base and taxpayer characteristics of their firms.

The random sample is part of a study being conducted by Tec Search, Inc., independent research consultants retained by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce. Purpose of the six-month study is to provide an objective economic basis from which an acceptable revenue program, replacing the personal property tax, can be developed.

"Under the new Illinois constitution, the personal property tax must be phased out as a revenue source prior to January 1, 1973," Lester W. Brann, Jr., State Chamber president, said. "The revenue thus lost must be replaced by another tax source or sources, and the new levies are to fall on the same classes of taxpayers who benefit from the elimination of the personal property tax."

"Much of the burden of any new tax program will fall on Illinois business firms, which now provide local governments throughout the state with more than 75% of personal property tax revenues. The change in tax structure requires immediate and careful study of alternative tax sources and their effect on economic growth of Illinois."

"Therefore, it is vital that the state's business interests take the initiative in finding new sources and in proposing a replacement tax program which will meet the state's needs as prescribed by the constitution, support continued economic growth, and be fair and equitable for the business community."

"We must come up with a replacement tax program based upon economic, rather than merely political, considerations—a program economically practical for Illinois business firms." Legislation based on the study results is to be drafted and introduced in the Illinois General Assembly.

TOP OF THE BOOM of a giant crane that overturned at the rear of the Granite City High School Friday at 10 a.m. damaged five autos parked near the school cafeteria. At left, Officer Jim Lengyel takes a report from Tom Brannan, school custodian and owner of the damaged 1969 Ford shown here. The toppling crane also damaged part of the school building.

Varied Musical Fare At Weekend Concerts

The Mississippi River Festival presented widely differing concerts during the weekend, with the largest crowd of more than 13,000 attracted Friday night by a 1950s "rock and roll" revival.

Ceremonies Nightly at Cahokia Mounds Park

Two Collinsville groups, the Cahokia Mounds Dancers, will conduct nightly one-hour ceremonies starting at about 8:15 each evening this week at Cahokia Mounds State Park.

The Calumet ceremony relates the story of the Cahokia Mounds. From dances, songs and stories of American Indians, the groups have created a legend that begins with an ancient pipe dance and ends with a "great eagle" dance.

The gathering included many young people as well as older residents, the era of 20 years ago.

The following evening, there was a much smaller turnout but the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra won praise for its expertise with varied romantic orchestral selections.

Several thousand were on hand last night to register enthusiastic appreciation for the orchestra, under the baton of Margaret Harris, "Halo" music director, and for solo and duet presentations of show tunes by baritone Earl Wrightson and soprano Lois Hunt.

FACES TRAFFIC CHARGES

FALLEN GIANT. A shovel leaning against the tread gives a clue to the size of the large crane which overturned at 10 a.m. Friday on the parking lot at the rear of the Granite City High School, damaging five cars parked near the school cafeteria. Robert Beedle Gets Pittsburgh Manager's Post

Robert W. Beedle, 31, of 57 Cambridge Lane, has been named manager of Land O'Lakes, Inc., Pittsburgh sales branch, effective Aug. 1. It was announced by John B. Carr, vice-president branch sales.

Beedle will be responsible for marketing the full line of Land O'Lakes dairy and turkey products — butter, cheese, turkeys, eggs and dry milks — to all three food industry markets, consumer, food service and food processor.

For the past three years Beedle was consumer products sales representative of Land O'Lakes branch in St. Louis. He was associated with Kozak Grocery in Granite City for the preceding 10 years.

Beedle graduated from the Granite City High School and attended Southern Illinois University at Alton.

Beedle formerly was a member of the Nameoki Township Board, resigning that post earlier this year for business reasons. He also was a Democratic precinct committeeman in Nameoki township.

He is a lifelong resident of Granite City and a graduate of Granite City High School. He is married and has two sons.

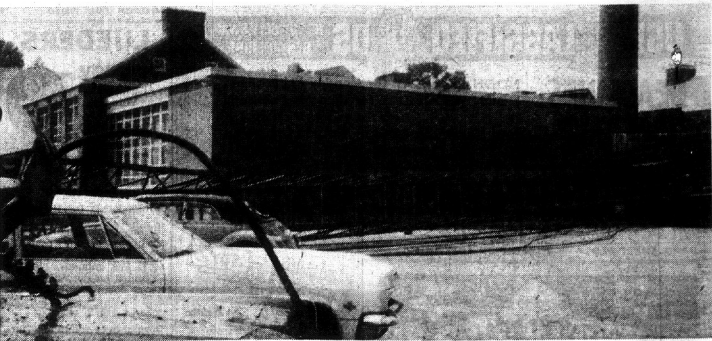

Pontoon Beach Plans Own Open Burning Ban

The Pontoon Beach Village Board will act in its next meeting, July 27 on an ordinance prohibiting open burning to bring the village in compliance with a statewide open burning ban that became effective July 1.

Board trustees, in regular session Thursday night, instructed the village attorney to prepare the ordinance following a discussion in which the board members said they believed the city should enforce the ban under city regulations rather than the state law.

Village board members also concurred in the appointment by Mayor Otto Kreher of Chester Anderson of Pontoon Beach as "street commissioner" to coordinate and supervise village street improvement work.

No date was set for blocking a stormwater sewer in an effort to determine the location of illegal home taps, but board members said the action will be taken in about two weeks. The village plans to flush water into the sewer and determine where it backs up in yards to locate the taps.

THE BOOM WENT BOOM. Length of the giant crane that overturned at the rear of the Granite City High School Friday morning is apparent in this view of the toppled equipment. Five cars parked near the high school cafeteria were damaged. The crane is owned by the S. M. Wilson Construction Co. and was in operation at the rear of the building when the accident occurred.

Whitsell May Freeze Bills of County Museum

Supervisor Louis Whitsell of Nameoki Township, chairman of the Education and Recreation Committee of the Madison County Board, has threatened to refuse approval of bills for the Madison County Historical Museum in a dispute over authority in the operations of the museum.

His three-man committee approved bills for June for the museum at the meeting of the County Board, but Whitsell said it may not do so next month unless arrangements are made for more supervision by the county board.

Following the remarks, Nelson Hagauer, board chairman, said the matter would be settled by the next meeting.

The museum operates on a budget of about $19,000 in special taxes plus contributions from private individuals and organizations, in addition to volunteer services, through a 15-member board of directors of the Madison County Historical Society.

Membership to the society is open to all county residents dues free. It is a non-profit organization chartered in the 1920s and formerly operated a museum in the county court house building.

The museum currently is located in Edwadsville in an historic home purchased in 1963 for $12,000 and renovated with total cost of $35,000 raised through contributions and proceeds of the county's sesquicentennial celebration.

SIU-SW Students Set Up Emergency Drug Hotline

Two freshmen at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern are establishing an emergency hotline for this Illinois area, but right now they are the ones needing help.

Dale Ferguson and Mike Jakich, both of Granite City, have office space and a telephone in Granite City for the proposed 24-hour per day counseling center. But they need more volunteers to staff the service and qualified persons to run a training program.

Both youths said they decided to start a round-the-clock counseling center after viewing drug abuse while working with counselors at Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City. Pregnancy counseling and other services will be available. Jakich said.

Ferguson said the proposed center already has received assistance from the Rev. L. J. Mattingly of St. Elizabeth's Church in Granite City, and from Sister Cornelia, a counselor of Coordinated Youth Services.

Assistance also has been promised, Ferguson said, by Mike Jesse of Granite City, who will conduct a first-aid course for center volunteers, and by the Community Involvement Project at SIU-SW.

7 Skunks, 2 Raccoons And Creepy Crawlers

Seven skunks, two raccoons, one possum and a variety of snakes, lizards and assorted creepy crawlers were noted by scouts and leaders of Troop 99, sponsored by Central Christian Church, as they played a game called "freeze-out" at Boy Scout Camp Sunken last week.

Wayne Scannell, manager of the Madison Glik Department store, and father of Boy Scout Mike Scannell, spent a few days in camp and presented a blow by blow description of the game.

"It was 11 p.m. and we all moved our bunks outside where we remained still and watched the animals come into our camp," Scannell related.

"It was a beautiful but frightening experience. Did you ever have a very beautiful skunk crawl directly under your bed knowing if you move, what could happen? This was without a doubt the best two days I have ever spent in my life."

Japanese Violinist and Victor Borge Will Perform with Symphony This Weekend

Japanese violinist Taiko Maehashi will make her debut with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra here on Saturday, July 22, at 8:30 p.m.

Comedian-pianist Victor Borge will conduct and perform with the Orchestra on Sunday, July 23, at 7:30 p.m. Soprano Marilyn Mulvey will be featured on Borge's Sunday night program.

Both the Saturday and Sunday concerts are part of the 1972 Mississippi River Festival series on the SIU-SW campus. Miss Maehashi, who scored a great success as soloist with the Little Symphony last year, will perform Sibelius' Violin Concerto in D minor.

A graduate of the Juilliard School of Music in New York, she also has studied at Japan's top music school, the Toho School, and has spent three years of intensive study at the Leningrad Conservatory in Russia.

Music Director Walter Susskind will open the concert with Two Symphonic Dances by Grieg and close with Franck's Symphony in D minor.

In addition to Borge's famous monologues and comic commentary, the Danish pianist will be featured in an arrangement of Gershwin's F major Piano Concerto. Also highlighting his program will be performances by Marylyn Mulvey of "Musetta's Waltz" from "La Boheme" by Puccini and "Laughing Song" from "Die Fledermaus" by Strauss.

Borge will conduct the Orchestra in the Overture to "Die Fledermaus," Glazunov's "Triumphal March on the Occasion of the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago" and Susskind's "Romance" in G major for Violin and Orchestra featuring concertmaster John Korman.

Tickets for Sunday night's Victor Borge concert are currently available on the lawn only.
